Grand Rapids, Mich., June 9, 2015 – It's been a rewarding week for Lambert, Edwards & Associates (LE&A), as the company took home two awards, including The Grand Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce's Small Business of the Year and the Horizon Interactive Silver Award.

EPIC Awards – Small Business of the Year

During the 2015 EPIC Awards ceremony, the Grand Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce presented LE&A with the Small Business of the Year award. The EPIC Awards celebrate businesses who demonstrate "Entrepreneurial, Progressive, Innovative and Collaborative" (EPIC) traits in the community.

In addition to the Small Business of the Year, six other awards were presented to recognize businesses and individuals who have served as mentors and collaborators, supported the community, demonstrated growth and generated innovation. LE&A received the award during a ceremony held on June 1st at the Frederik Meijer Garden & Sculpture Park near Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Horizon Interactive Awards – Promotional Video for Website

Additionally, during the 13th annual Horizon Interactive Awards ceremony held June 6th, LE&A and partner CVMedia were honored with a Silver Award in the Promotional Video for Website category. The award was presented for the "Global Reach, Midwest-Minded" video, which can be viewed on the LE&A's YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gQ-RvVHWMc8&feature=youtu.be>.

The Horizon Interactive Awards recognizes excellence in the field of interactive and creative media, including the best websites, videos, online advertising, print media and mobile applications. Each year, the Horizon Interactive Awards receive thousands of entries from all over the world and a panel of industry professionals reviews the entries to determine the work that is to be recognized.
